THE COMPANY

Henkell & Co. Sektkellerei

Henkell & Co.-Gruppe is among the leading producers of sparkling wine, wine and spirits in Europe, and is represented by its own subsidiaries and sales organisations in 20 different countries.

Henkell & Co.'s headquarters are located in the company's parent house in Wiesbaden-Biebrich. Today, the Henkell & Co.-Gruppe represents all relevant categories of sparkling wine from its own production. These are the "Pearls of Europe", exported to more than 100 countries worldwide.

Originally founded in 1832 as a wine trading business in Mainz by Adam Henkell he expanded his company in 1856 with the construction of a "Champagne factory", marking the birth of today's Henkell & Co. Sektkellerei. The success story continued in 1909, when the business moved to the new building in Wiesbaden-Biebrich.

THE TOUR

Making Life Sparkle

Whenever there is something to celebrate – birthdays, anniversaries, New Year's, Christmas – you will find corks a-popping: Sparkling wine is always something special. The cellar tour of one of the premiere sparkling wine producers in the world gives you an insight into the history of this sparkling treasure. Experience the impressive rococo Marble Hall and the 200,000-litre barrels in wine cellars that extend over seven floors. Taste exquisite varieties and enjoy a fascinating excursion into the world of sparkling wine.
